

A Memorial Resolution Honoring Thomas Low

Whereas the American Library Association (ALA), the Asian/Pacific American Librarians Association (APALA), and the publishing community lost a valued member on May 1, 2011, with the death of Thomas Low;

Whereas Low co-founded Lee & Low Books in 1961 with Philip Lee and served as the publishing house's president;

Whereas Low worked tirelessly with many authors, writers, educators, artists and illustrators of color to publish over 100 titles;
