

APPENDIX 3

Advocacy Contact List

Constructive working relationships with stakeholders and decision makers is foundational to your advocacy work.

Keep track of the names/websites/emails/phone numbers for the key contacts that you may need to include in advocacy efforts. Tip: update this list annually to keep it current!

Federal

Senators
Staff contact
Key committees
Representative(s)
Staff contact
Key committees
Agency contacts

State

Media

Newspaper staff
Radio/TV station staff
Online community facilitator
Other local media
Other

Other Library-Related Groups

State library association
State library
Statewide trustee organization
School library organization
Academic library association
School superintendents/ school boards associations
Teachers union/association
Other

Who else in your community can help you better engage with stakeholders and elected officials?
