COORDINATOR'S MEMO

FROM: John Hostage, Action Council Coordinator

SRRT members had a full schedule as usual at the Midwinter Meeting in San Antonio. Among the issues which were had a lively discussion on whether to endorse any of the candidates. There were partisans for each presidential candidate, but there was not a clear majority that felt that either one represented strongly enough what SRRT was looking for, so no endorsement was made. After a discussion of the candi-

was a report to ALA Council from headquarters about the state of minority endorse Carla Stoffle for that office. It was felt that she could best continue

Because of the full agenda at Mid-winter, Action Council did not have time to consider formal endorsement of bers. They can unite the librarians in a common course of action. Currently newsletters from the Elsie and

SRRT mem[redacted]bers who are running for ALA California system will be included in

EXCHANGE TASK FORCE: MIDWINTER SUMMARY

At its meeting on January 10, the LEA

Noel Paattie reviewed the status of the criticized a proposed policy statement

Peace Award proposal. It was the sense of the Task Force that Noel should inform the ALA Awards Committee that we are still interested in the idea and that we will return to them when we have a resolution which spells out of the Standing Committee on Library Education (SCOLE), suggesting that the wording be changed to "preferred professional degree" and that "professional" no longer be used as a modifier of "librarian." SCOLE's statement is
