

A Publication of the Social Responsibilities Round of the American Library Association

able
UG

March 1989

Number 91

ISSN 0749-1670

COORDINATOR'S MEMO

From: John Hostage

Edgar Hoover himself, saying that Davis was awaiting prosecution, and thus he could not comment.

the four candidates for ALA President-
The following are the candidates meeting in

Minority Internship/Fellowship Program managed by the Office for Library Out

HELP FREE A SOUTH AFRICAN LIBRARIAN

Librarians are urged to write an appeal requesting the immediate and uncondi-set up, those people interested in being in it would receive about one appeal per month, asking them to write at least one letter as quickly as possible about the tional release of Thiswilandi Rejoice Mabudafhezi, a 50-year-old librarian case. We would be part of a "specific interest" list and would be notified

* Dallas information: Meetings are scheduled as follows: business (Sun. 6/25, 8-9 a.m.; Tues. 6/27, 4:30-5:30 p.m.); program (Sunday 6/25, 8-10 p.m.). The program is tentatively scheduled to be an address by the incoming national president of Physicians for Social Res-

Librarians for Nuclear Arms Control (LNAC), send $15.00 to:

Librarians for Nuclear Arms Control
P.O. Box 60552
Pasadena, CA 91106

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

LESS SKIN, MORE SUBSTANCE

A petition asking Senate Illustrated to...

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

SRRT member Ilene Rockman, editor of multiculturalism, literacy, small presses, gay and lesbian books for young adults, and community participation in access, the implications for libraries, and look at possible solutions to the problem. The need for legislation and adequate funding to effect remedial action emerges clearly. Valuable appendices, a bibliography, and an index are provided.

* * * * *

— Lori Keenan

* * *

INFACT BRINGS UP TO LIGHT

Convinced that multinational nuclear weapons makers, such as General Electric, not only profit enormously from "nuke" production but also contribute directly to the spiraling nuclear arms race, the Social Responsibilities Round Table of the Minnesota Library Association has expressed its support for INFACT's campaign to stop the production of nuclear weapons and break the cycle

* In November the ALA Office for Library Outreach Services (OIOS) Advisory

* In July ALA Council approved a public policy statement on minority concerns initiated by ALA's Council Committee on