

SRRT Newsletter*

A Publication The Gay and Lesbian Task Force did a superb job orchestrating events related to Colorado's Amendment 2. A rally on Monday at noon saw about 200 ALA members demonstrating against the amendment. The protest started at the Convention Center, where ALA president Marilyn Miller and GLTF co-chair Roland Hansen spoke. The protesters then moved to the west steps of the state Capitol, several blocks away, where they were lead in songs and chants. GLTF co-chair Karen Whittlesey-First, Women's Studies Section, and supporters.

ALA issued President Miller's statement (see p. 3), as well as a release on the 1998 midwinter conference out of Denver. A sheet on ALA's policies on equal conference attendees wore at least one of the available buttons, two of which were SRRT and the Children's Book Council. Sold by the Colorado Library Association, the SRRT buttons are still available.

Our special thanks go to Neal-Schuman for giving their booth to Equality Colorado to the members of Children's Book Council for their special posters and buttons, to Moha Library Furniture for its poignant emblem booth, which had an enlarged copy of letter to the Governor of Colorado hanging on the back wall, to CRISES for their excellent display of gay and lesbian materials.

In Memoriam

Feminist Task Force
Berman, and I made
brief remarks, as did Susan Searing, who represented the ACRE

The Social Responsibilities Round Table notes with sadness the passing of one of its founding members, Jackie Eubanks, a long-time member of Action Council, and a guiding force in the Alternatives in Print Task Force. Those of us who have worked with Jackie will remember her as one who truly cared. Working with Jackie was at times delightful, at times aggravating, but it was always interesting, fun, and worthwhile. We will sorely miss her.
