IV. Reports of Officers and ALA Executive Board Liaison

a) Co-Chair Report

- x The Rainbow List honored three authors.
- x If members want to stay up to date on the round table, they should join the membership discussion list. The differences between the membership list and the steering committee list were explained
- x T-shirts are for sale in sizes small-2x. They are priced on a sliding scale: $10 to $20. They will be sold at the special and social.

h) Over the Rainbow Ad Hoc Committee

A statement was made regarding the lack of academic titles on the list. The OTR list is not meant to be an academic list rather a list of readers fiction of general interest.

The possibility of forming an academic list was mentioned, but nothing was concluded.

VII. New Business

i) Removal of language in our bylaws and creation of a Procedure Manual

Peter Hepburn explained the removal of procedural language from bylaws. Detailed explanations of the changes can be found on Connect

Discussion follows:

Procedural language causes the bylaws to be cumbersome when it comes to making changes within our various committees and removing it will streamline them. A Procedure Manual is being created and all of the language from the bylaws will be moved into it. The bylaws will be updated to reflect the changes. The bylaws will be updated to reflect the changes. The bylaws will be updated to reflect the changes.
